

JOY RIDER SHOT, CAR RIDDLED, IN AUTO THIEF CHASE

Police Fire Volleys in Foot and Horse Pursuit of Big Red Machine.

Four policemen in the Bronx had a wild chase after supposed automobile thieves shortly after midnight. The chase was still more exciting for the fugitives. Before the fugitives were captured one was shot in the neck, another had a bullet pass through his hat, three tires of the machine were punctured with bullets, the auto was riddled and a passerby was hurried twenty feet by the car.

The auto belongs to Dr. Charles Paterno, a wealthy real estate man and physician, who lives at Paterno Castle at One Hundred and Eighty-second street and Riverside Drive. It was stolen in front of a restaurant at Eighth avenue and Fifty-fifth street yesterday afternoon while the doctor's chauffeur, Homer Walters, who was driving Mrs. Paterno on a shopping tour, was eating.

MAN SHOT IN THE NECK.
MAY DIE.

The men under arrest described themselves as Albert Gaynor, nineteen, helper, of No. 98 St. Nicholas avenue; William Smith, twenty-three, electrician, of No. 176 East Eighty-first street; William Smith again, twenty-two, also electrician, of No. 235 West One Hundred and Forty-ninth street; John McLoughlin, twenty-three, compressed air worker, of No. 218 Eighth avenue, and George Nye, twenty-four, father, of No. 64 West Ninety-third street. They are all charged with grand larceny. Nye, the man who was shot in the neck, is in the Fordham Hospital and may die. The others were locked up at the Highbridge police station, to be arraigned in the Morrisania Court.

The man who was knocked down in the chase was James Flannigan, twenty-three, of No. 235 West Forty-sixth street. Despite the violence with which he was hurled through the air, he got up and said he was not hurt, and Dr. Scholl of the Fordham Hospital could find nothing the worse with him than severe bruises.

THREE POURED SHOTS AT CAR IN THE CHASE.

Just before midnight Sergt. John Colgan on his round mounted Police-man Carney and Patrolman O'Keefe at Jerome and Riverside avenues, and was telling them of the general alarm that had been sent out for Dr. Paterno's car, when a big, red automobile came hurtling toward them with a noisy party aboard.

The three then opened fire with their revolvers, and all shot until Colgan and O'Keefe had to stop because Carney, on his horse Sandy, galloping after the car, got in their line of fire.

Colgan and O'Keefe then sprang onto a trolley car and ordered the motorman to put on all his speed. The motorman did, but he had a load and could not keep up with Sandy.

Carney, firing and reloading as he galloped, aimed at first at the wheels of the auto and did some remarkable shooting. One after the other he blew out the two rear tires with bullets and, finding that that did not stop the car, he shot at the front wheels and punctured another tire.

It was at crossing Old Fordham road that Flannigan got in the way of the car and experienced his miraculous escape. Not knowing that the man was not killed, Carney now aimed point blank at the fleeing auto, and at Kingsbridge road Patrolman Smith joined in the shooting. Then the auto soon stopped.

Dr. Paterno identified his car and said, as he passed his hand over the back, that it was so well riddled with bullets he would keep it as it was as an interesting relic.

STATE PAID CHARGES ON STAMPS STOLEN FROM COMPTROLLER

ALBANY, Jan. 28.—Gov. Sulzer today directed that the evidence taken before his committee of inquiry yesterday concerning the theft of stamps from the State Comptroller's office be transmitted to the District-Attorney of Albany County for action by him.

John H. Bernard, now said to be residing in Highland Falls, has confessed he stole stamps while employed as a janitor in the State House, according to testimony of United States Post-office inspectors, and the committee has reported to the Governor that George B. Van Wie of Albany appears to have, with knowledge, aided the said Bernard in the marketing of these stamps.

"Incidentally it was discovered," said the Governor today, "that the stamps stolen from the State Comptroller's office were sent to the brokers with whom the dishonest employee dealt boy's eczema "We cured our little son of eczema with Resinol. His legs were as raw as could be. It began with just little pimples. He could not rest or sleep, the itching was so bad. We tried every remedy we could think of but they did not seem to do him any good. After he suffered like that for about three months, we then began to wash him with Resinol Soap, and then used Resinol Ointment. They cured him in about two weeks, and he has never had any symptoms of eczema again." (Signed) Mrs. M. J. McCollum, Shenk, N. C.
